Tim Waring of ToddlerSoccer.Org

A brand new sporting experience for toddlers has been launched in Northern Ireland, guaranteed to get their imaginations up and running as well as their little legs!

ToddlerSoccer.Org is a fantastic way to get your little ones active, and teaches them new skills through fun soccer coaching and games.

Director & Head Coach of ToddlerSoccer.Org Tim Wareing holds a UEFA European A licence & has over 10 years of coaching experience. He has held many roles throughout the local game, his latest being with Irish Premier League side, Lisburn Distillery. Here, he implemented a very successful Academy. Now going into his 5th year of business, Tim has developed a great introduction for toddlers in football that is set in a relaxed, learning environment that will have your toddler wanting to come back for more!

“We feel that 3 and 4 year old toddlers in Northern Ireland have not got a great range of organised, fun, sporting activities. That is why TWSports.Org launched ToddlerSoccer.Org,” explained Tim.

“We offer a varied programme of coaching and games aimed at toddlers. We welcome all regardless of ability, gender or cultural background. Our coaches deliver a fun 45 minute session for each child to work with their peers 1-on-1. But don't worry mum and dad if you haven't played football or if you're not as mobile! Our programme is aimed for you and your child to have fun in a relaxed atmosphere.
